RSIP Management Completes 2nd Capital Raise in 2019 for Patent Litigation Finance

August 8, 2019 - RSIP Management, LLC ("RSIP Management"), an affiliate of Randolph Square IP, LLC ("Randolph Square"), is pleased to announce the completion of a capital raise for its third series of patent litigation finance funds. A group of institutional and high net worth investors subscribed to the funds which will enable the pursuit of claims against large corporate infringers. "The first half of 2019 has gone very well and is quite encouraging for the future," commented Rob Smith, COO. "We are grateful that our patent litigation referral pipeline continues to grow and for the continued support of our investors."

"Our core business lines and systematic approach to patent analytics and litigation finance are working in tandem," said Ted Luse, CEO. "This allows us to review, and also organically develop, significant licensing and litigation opportunities." Randolph Square uses its exclusive IP analytics platform to work with patent litigators to identify monetization opportunities for current or potential clients. Utilizing the most current patent data available, Randolph Square provides its clients with competitive intelligence, risk management, and business development opportunities specifically tailored to each situation.
